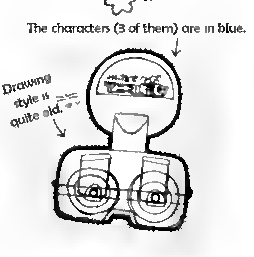
6 AniYoko Stamp

This was made as a prize for the quiz, and this is the first toy for this series!! ♥ (this was the coolest thing about having a quiz corner). I've been cherishing the first sample (?) I got. I also got a few more, so I (forcibly) gave them to my friends.

Since this is originally a prize for the quiz, it says, 'We'll play Animal Yokocho Quiz together" on the handle. Right now, you can get this if your fan art makes the cut. There are only 6 quiz sections per year, and the number of people who will make it is already decided. So technically, they should know the number of stamps they need to make. However, apparently there are tons more remaining (difficult situation in adult society?) >_<



Please cherish it if you get one. ♥ If you don't, please send your fan art >_< (Really, I wonder how many they have made)

By the way, I was told before by one of the manga artists that his/her sister won the stamp >_< I was really surprised and happy. I didn't know what to say, so I apologized for it (I don't know why).
